This building plot with a beautiful sea view is located next to a small fishing village in eastern Istria.

It has an area of 1210 m2, it is entirely construction and from the entire terrain there is an unobstructed view of the bay surrounded by greenery. The terrain is properly shaped, cleaned, all infrastructure is nearby. The land is ideal for building villas with pool that would have complete privacy and open sea views.

Great location-in peace and greenery, just a kilometer from the sea, beach, fine restaurants and promenade!

Property worth noting!
